

ELIZADE UNIVERSITY, ILARA-MOKIN ONDO STATE
 PROF YEMI OSINBAJO FACULTY OF LAW
 SECOND SEMESTER 2017/2018 ACADEMIC SESSION
 BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B) DEGREE EXAMINATION

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW 2 - PPL 206

INSTRUCTION: Question One is Compulsory and Answer Any Other Three (3)
Time Allowed: Three (3) Hours

1. Dr. Pedro was employed as a Neurosurgeon at the Okitipupa Hospital. Madam Queen was one of the patients operated upon by Dr. Pedro. For some years after the operation, Madam Queen kept having constant headache. In her complaint to the hospital authorities, Madam Queen alleged that Dr. Pedro was a quack doctor hence her problems. The Board of Management of Okitipupa Hospital met to consider the allegation. At the end of their deliberations, it decided to dismiss Dr. Pedro for lack of proper skill. This decision was immediately communicated to Dr. Pedro who now wants to challenge his dismissal. Advise him.
2. Write an opinion to the Registrar of Elizade University, highlighting the implications of the decision of the Supreme Court of Nigeria in Garba v. University of Maiduguri (1986)1 N.W.L.R. 550 for the discipline of students in Nigerian Universities.
3. Critically discuss the principles of Natural justice in the context of Administrative law and decision making by an administrator.
4. The office of the Ombudsman is legally recognised to investigate abuse of office and maladministration in Nigeria, With the aid of relevant authorities, trace the origin and development of the concept, the rationale for its establishment, its power and exceptions (if any)
5. Write comprehensive notes on the following:
 - (a) Declaratory Judgements
 - (b) Certiorari and Prohibition
 - (c) Mandamus
6. a) On what grounds can the courts intervene to review a decision of a tribunal on the application of an aggrieved party?
 b) Examine the judicial approach to the doctrine of Locus Standi in Nigeria.